

Opener

1. When you are told not to do or touch something, what is your first response?
2. Tell a story of a time you were supposed to do something but didn't. What happened as a result?

Discussion

1. When was the first time you heard about baptism? How were you taught about it?
2. Talk about the purposes of Baptism as outlined by Pastor Matt on Sunday morning. (A command, a public testimony, following Christ's example, a picture of salvation, God's power on your life) What of these purposes stands out to you?
3. If you have been baptized by immersion in water, share your memories of this experience and testimony with the group. If you have not been baptized yet, talk to your group leader about being baptized this Easter Sunday.
4. The second ordinance talked about Sunday was communion. Read 1 Corinthians 11:23-30. Talk about the important elements of communion in these verses.
5. When you remember what Jesus has done for you, what comes to mind first?
