Teaching Series: Anchored

Message Title / Pastor: “Anchored in God’s Divine Design” - Pastor Nate Lindseth

MESSAGE OVERVIEW

This Sunday’s message, Pastor Nate taught us that God had a dream and plan for you long before you were born. Many people have struggled to discover what they were made to do because they have started by looking in the wrong place. They start by looking at their feelings. Feelings are important, but our feelings can be easily swayed. Others, will look at their family history and upbringing. Again, these are all important parts of self-discovery but they are not the place to begin. The Bible clearly teaches that we must begin with God. He is our firm foundation that allows us to be anchored in Him first and who we were created to be. This message will help you see the power of being anchored in God’s divine design.
